The Atom

For Special Education

299

By Christa Joy

Electrons are small particles that move in orbits around the center of the atom.

Protons are much bigger than electrons and stay inside the nucleus.

There is another important thing that is happening inside an atom, electromagnetic force.

