DUCK FOR PRESIDENT LITERACY UNIT

Special Needs for Special Kids

ALSO INCLUDES GOOGLE SLIDES

These literacy units are something I created and started using in my classroom. I had students with significant challenges and most were non-readers. This is a great way to expose all students to some great books.

Duck for President

I think Duck would make a  president.

He would make sure we all had enough .

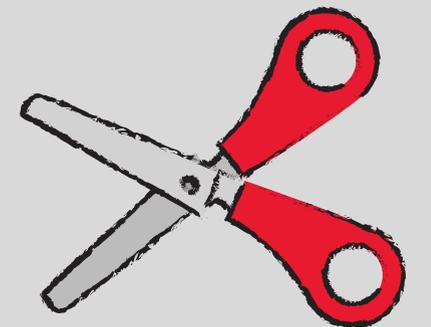

We would only have to go to school  days as week.

He would send everyone a  in the mail.

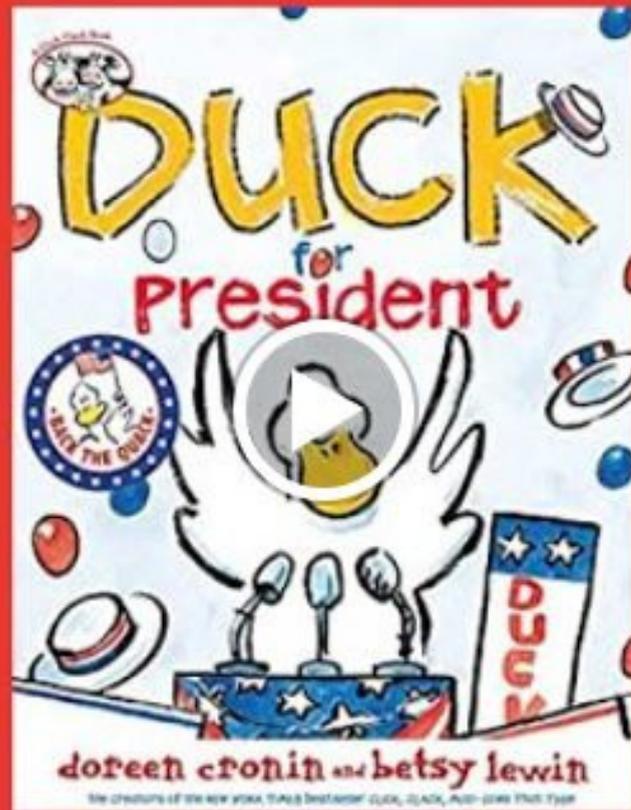

And there would be no more .

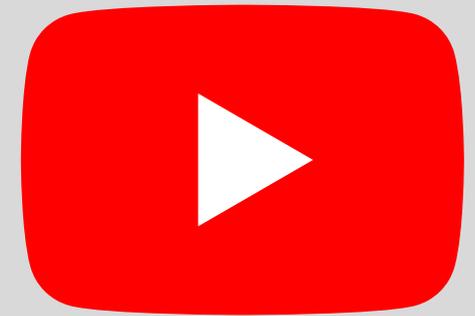

Students will write a story about why Duck would make a good president. This is an errorless activity that allows students to write their own story independently.

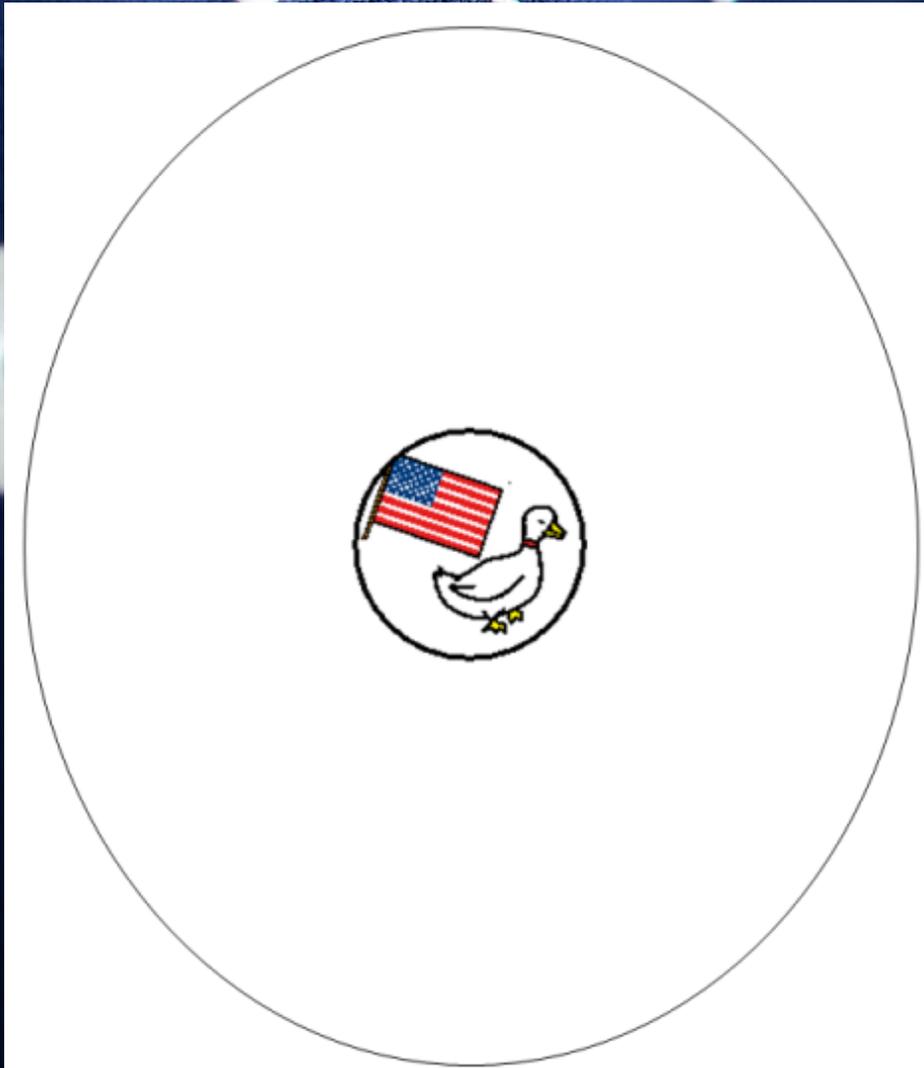

Watch Duck
for
