

WHEN MARIAN SANG

5 ACTIVITIES
PRINT & DIGITAL

Special Needs for Special Kids

These literacy units are something I created and started using in my classroom. I had students with significant challenges and most were non-readers. This is a great way to expose all students to some great books.

Color version

When Marian Sang

By
Christa Joy
Special Needs for Special Kids

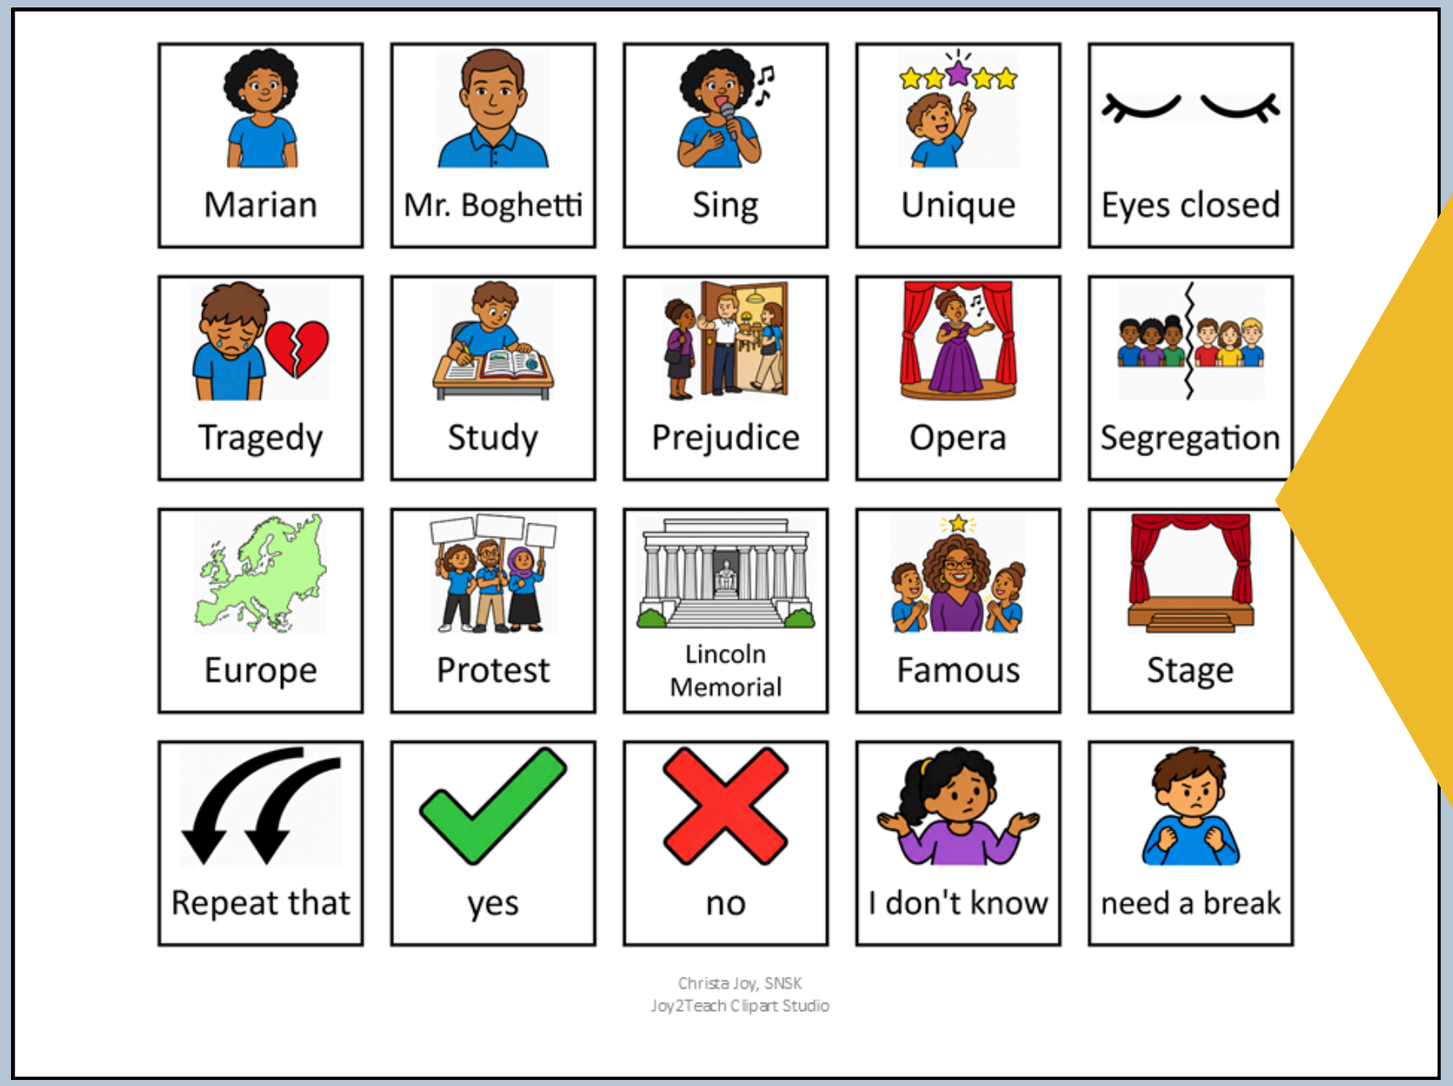

Table of Contents

Worksheet pages	Activity
4-5	Storyboard
6-9	Places to sing circle map
10-11	Discrimination word map
12-13	Matching talent to object
14-15	Sequencing main events
16-19	Writing prompt
20	Terms of Use

In separate files:

- Directions and links to digital versions
- Activities in black and white

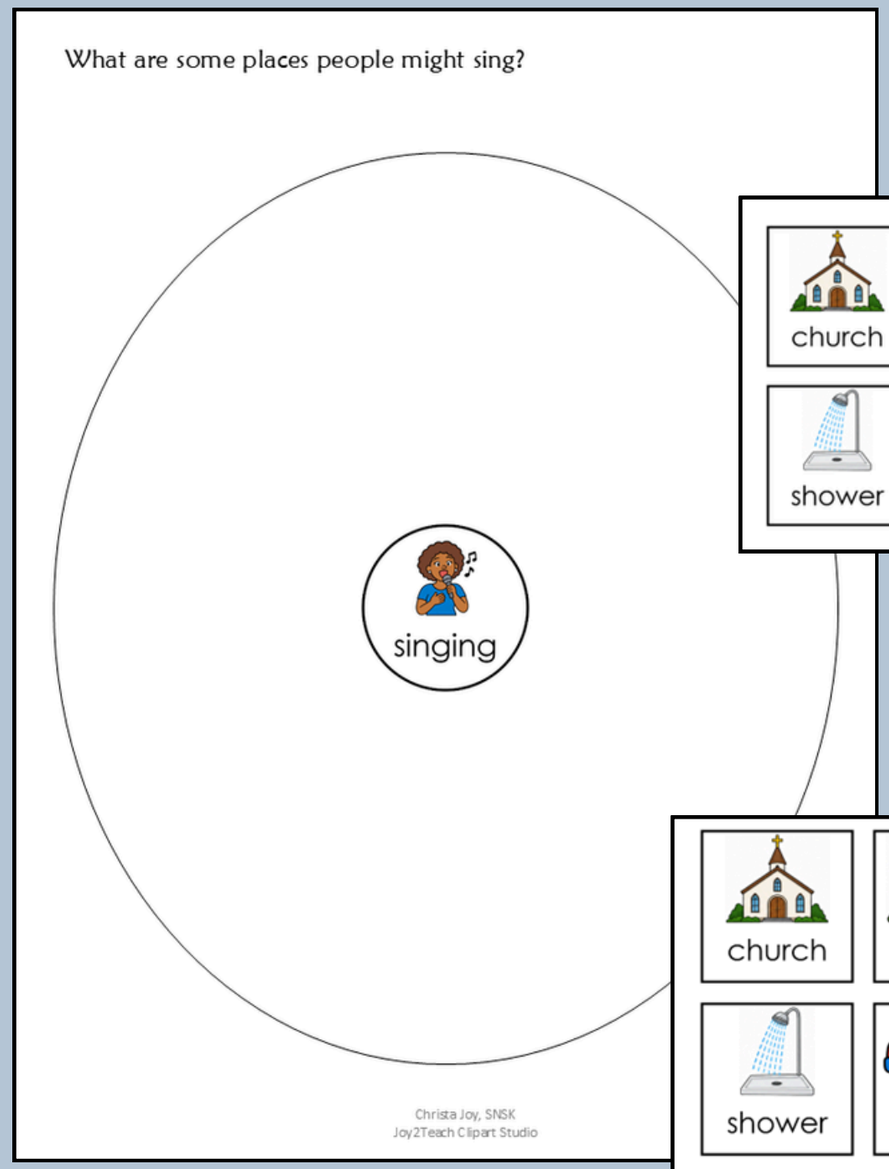

This unit includes 5 activities to accompany this book, enough to last a full week of instruction.

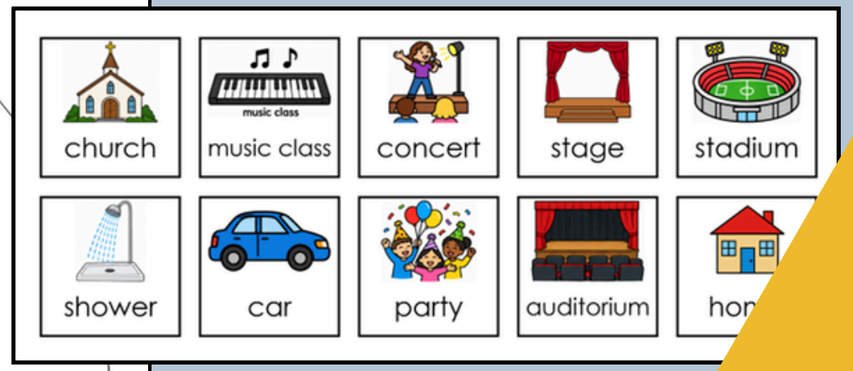

This unit comes with a storyboard.

Storyboards are great for ALL students to assist with participation and engagement in group discussions.

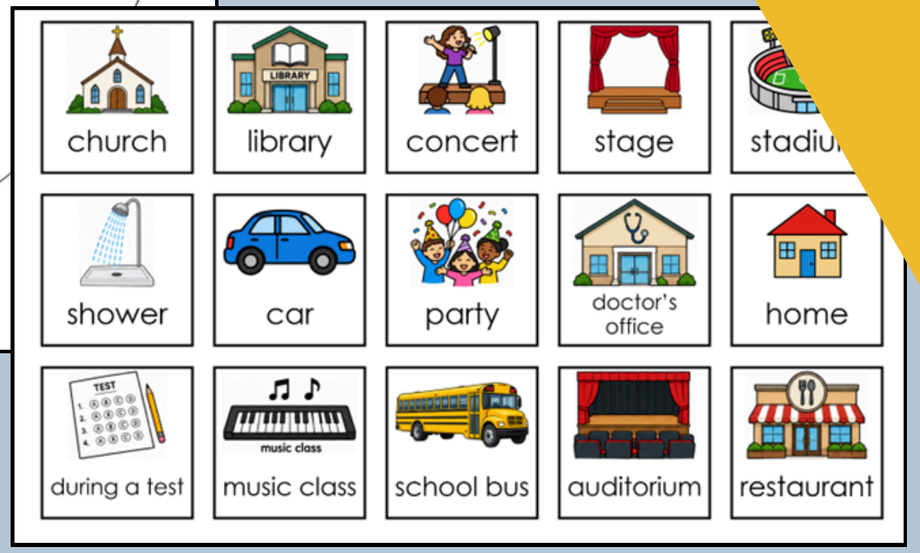

Tips on how to use in the unit!!

ERRORLESS

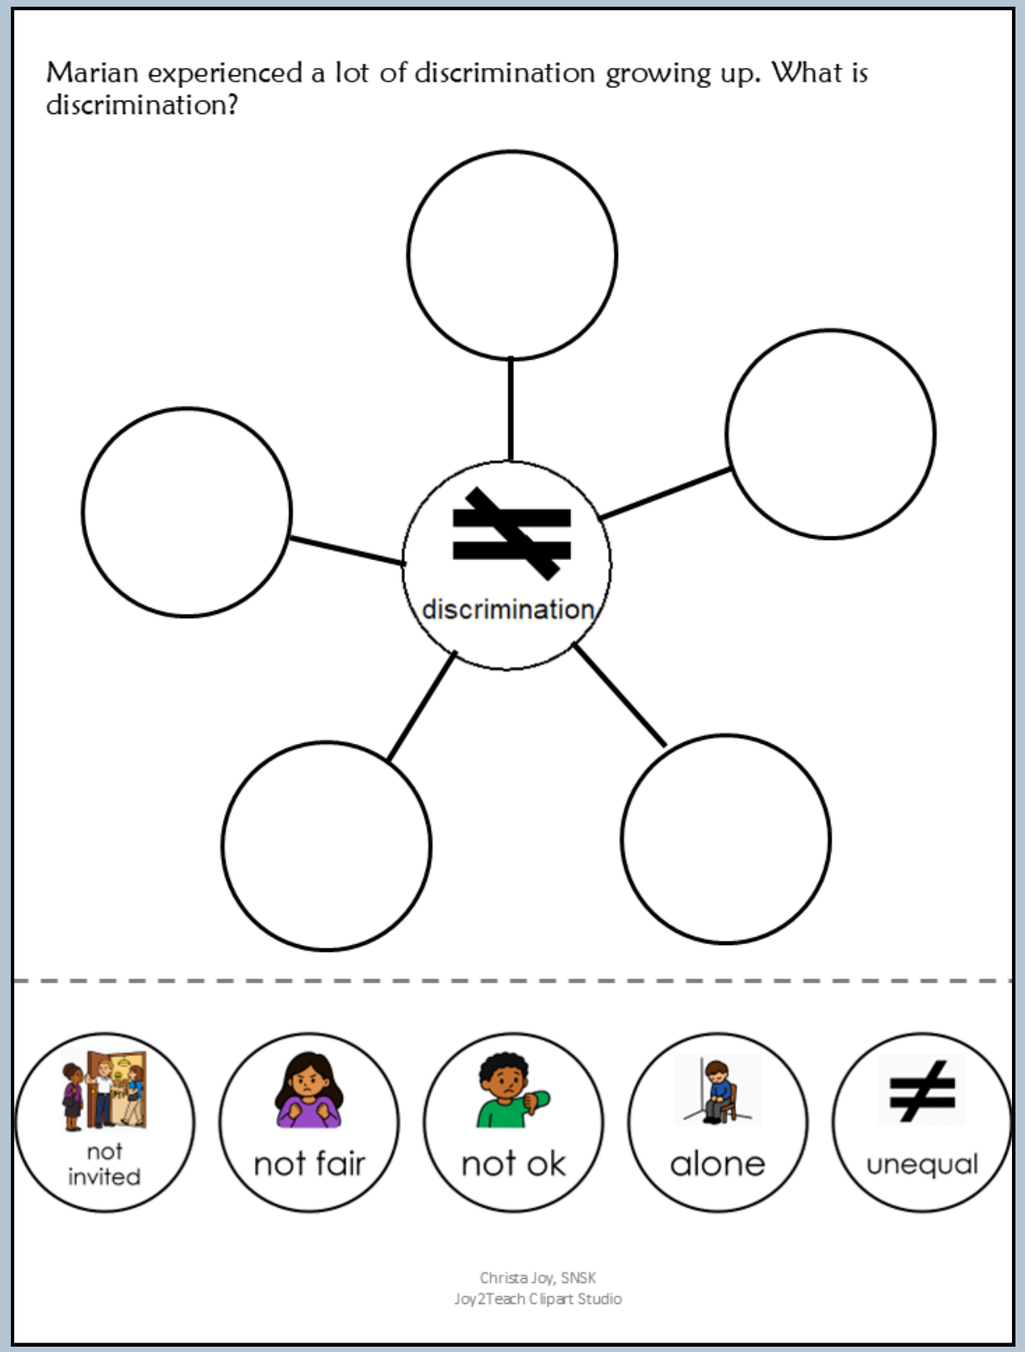

WRONG ANSWERS MIXED IN

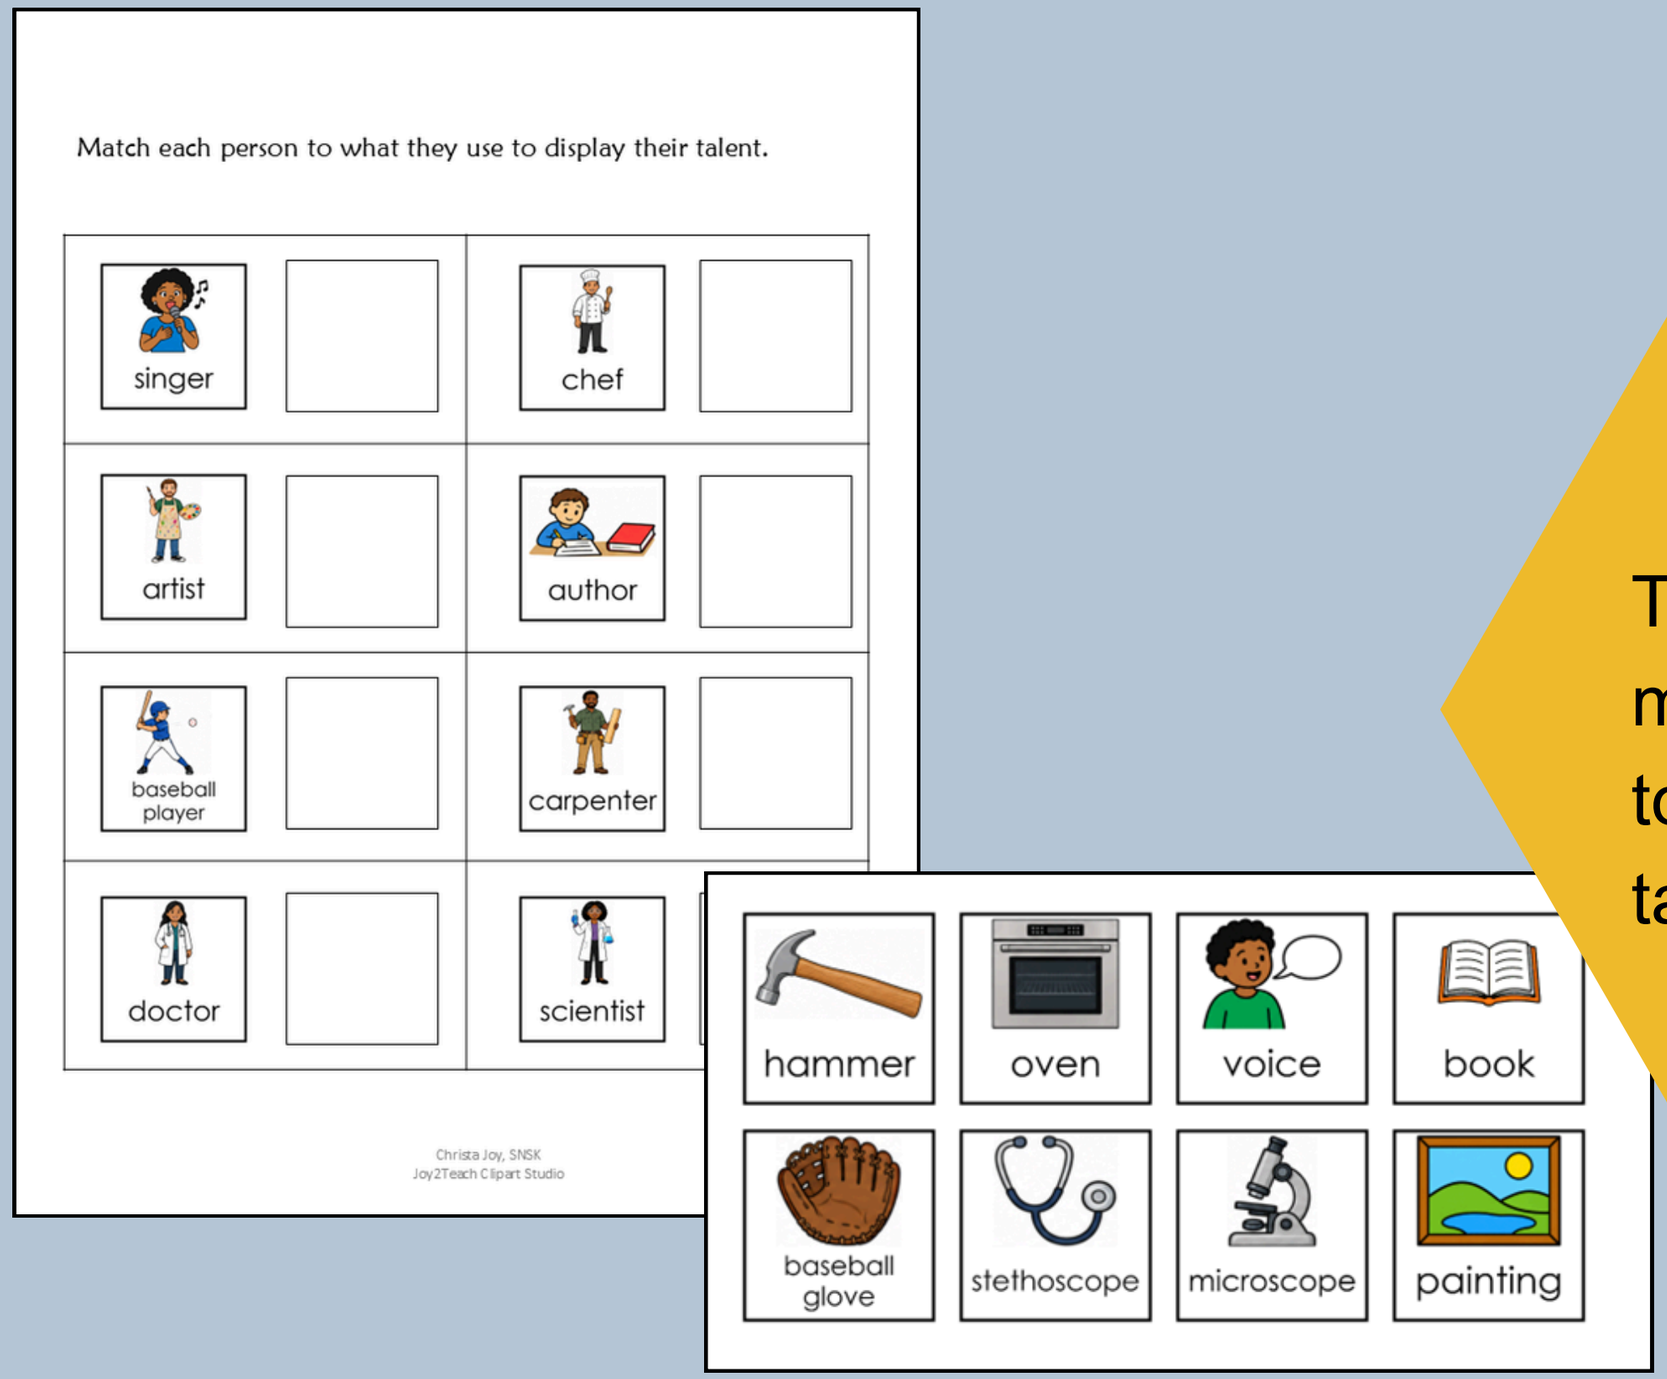

There is a circle map of places where people can sing.

There is an option containing correct answers and another containing wrong answers mixed in.

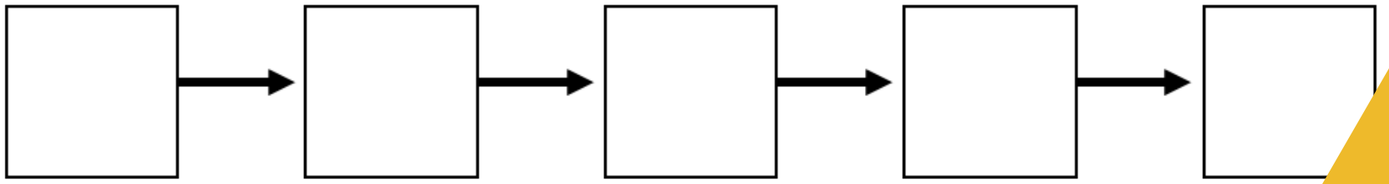

There is a word map about discrimination.

This is an errorless activity.

There is a matching activity: match each person to the tool they use to display their talent.

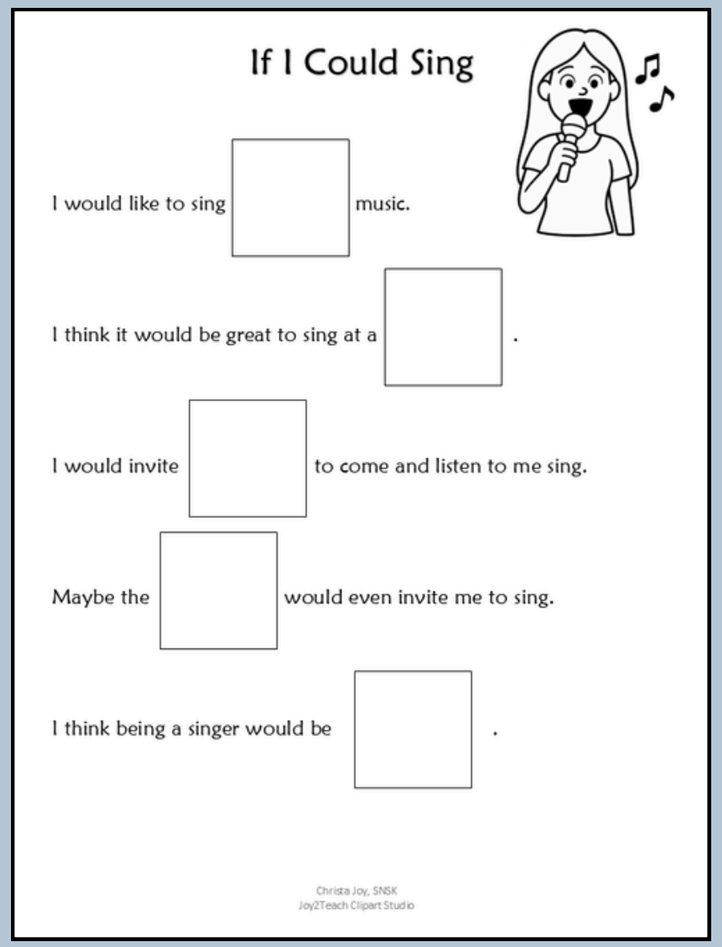

Sequence the events in the story.

Christa Joy, SNSK
Joy2Teach Clipart Studio

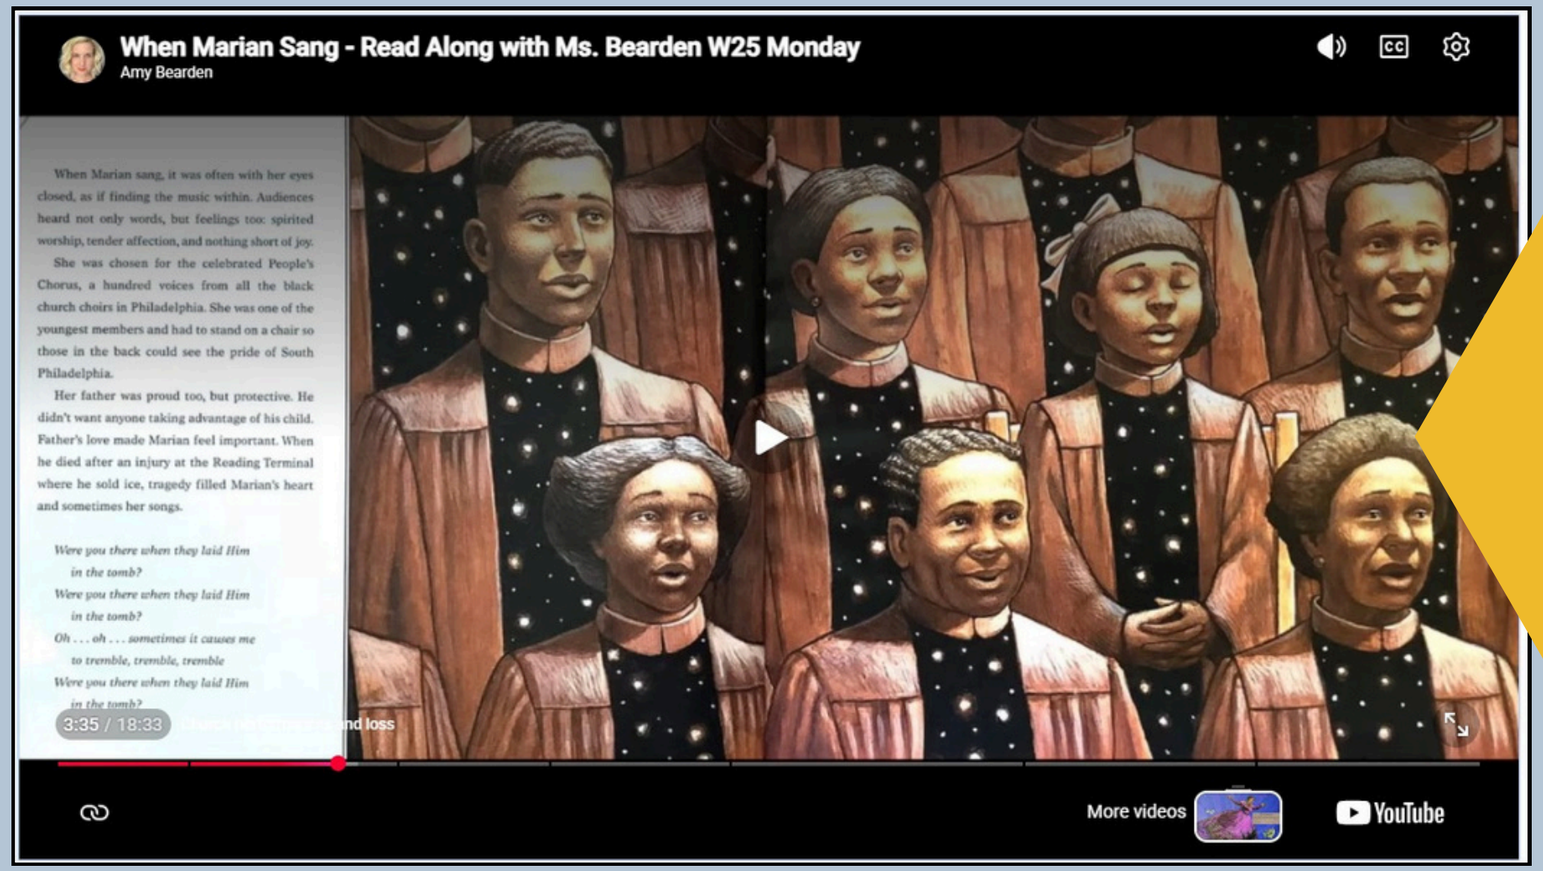

Students will sequence the main events in Marian’s life.

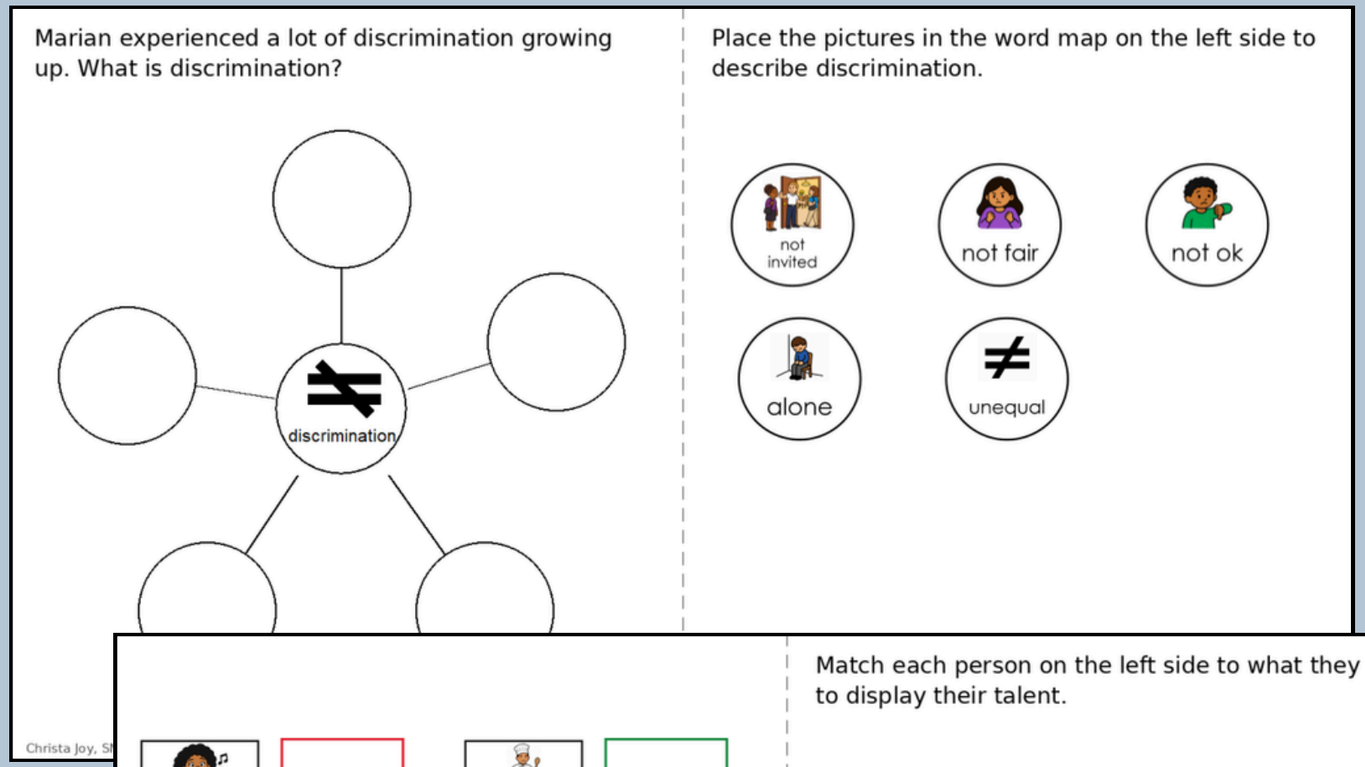

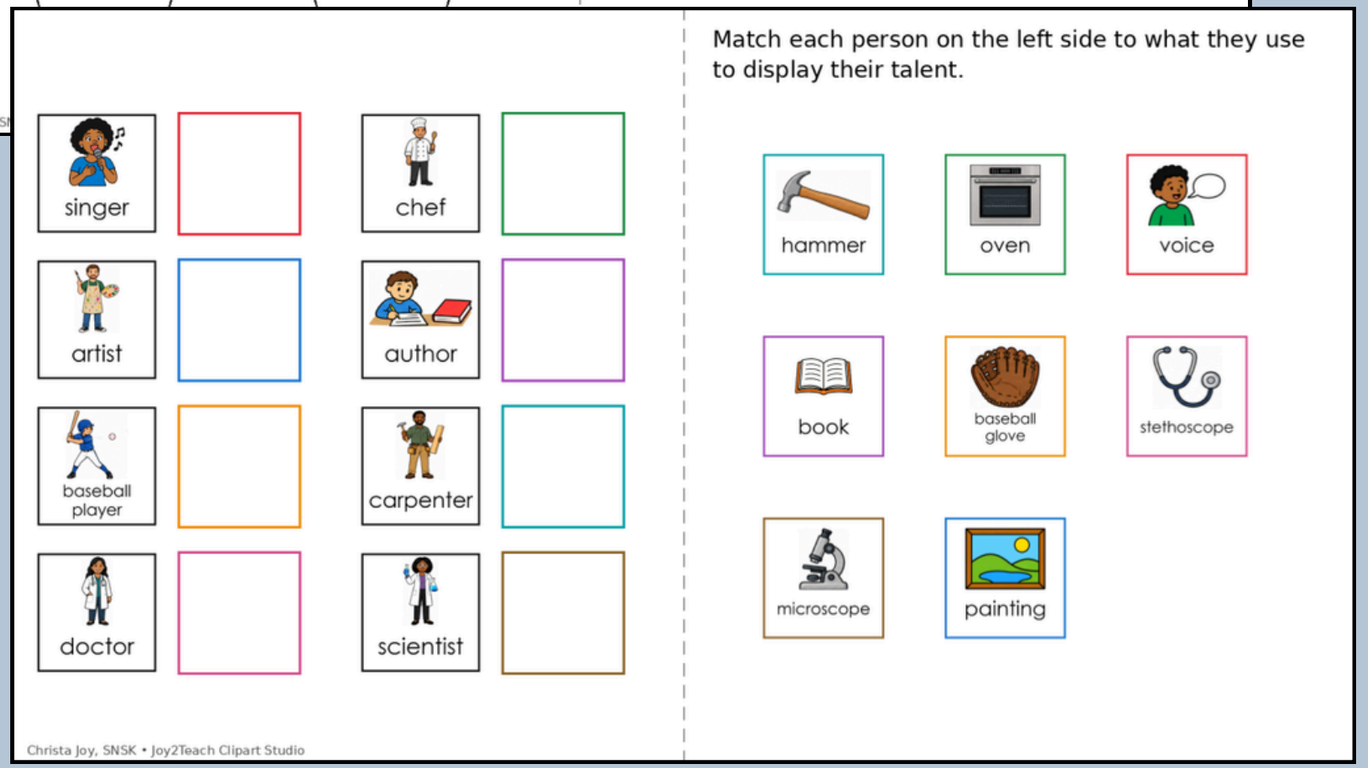

Students will write a story about being a singer.

This is an errorless activity that allows students to write their own story independently.

There is a video of the book read aloud. This is a video from YouTube.

There are digital versions of the activities included. Students click and drag the answers.